

Points West Living Stettler is managed by Connecting Care (2000) Inc. – a leader in seniors’ supportive housing management. Connecting Care is a convergence of complimentary service groups into one cohesive company, benefiting from the synergies all can provide. Connecting Care’s focus is to provide the best service and leadership to our stakeholders.

We want you to join our team!

We are currently searching for a cook to join our employee care partner team. Cooks play a pivotal role in making the food service experiences filled with meaning, memory, and relationships. Food should be prepared with care, served with pleasure, and appeal to all the senses. Food and beverages should reflect the preferences of the Residents, with a few surprises thrown in for variety and spontaneity. Spurred by appetite or interest, all should be able to fix, request, and enjoy foods of their choosing throughout the day, just as they would in their own home. In our Community, all are welcome at the table when it is time to dine, bringing the Domains of Well-Being into each Resident’s meal experience.

Do you meet the following requirements?

- Grade 12 Diploma or recognized equivalent.
- Formal Food Service training (Red Seal from an approved Food Service School) and/or experience in the Food Service Industry.
- Food Safe Certificate.
- Skills in creating an enticing and memorable meal or snack experience.
- Experience in hospitality services.
- Commitment to a Person-Centered approach.
- Flexibility and a willingness to modify services for the overall good of the Community and the Residents.
- Demonstrates an awareness of accident and injury prevention; adheres to safe work practices and procedures.
- An ability to move freely about, lift or push up to 50 lbs., stoop, kneel, and reach.
- A satisfactory criminal Record Check and Vulnerable Sector Check

Employment is conditional upon providing satisfactory proof that a candidate is fully immunized against COVID-19. This condition is subject to any legal obligations the Employer may have to accommodate to the point of undue hardship under the Alberta Human Rights Act, recognizing that the health and safety of other employee care partners and residents will be a priority.
